Baruch HaShem Messianic Synagogue hosts
TOS Ministries from Tubingen, Germany and Ted Pearce Ministries
3 EVENINGS OF STRATEGIC RECONCILIATION
October 31 – November 2, 2007

DALLAS, TX: Baruch HaShem Messianic Synagogue will host a reconciliation team from the TOS Ministries of Tubingen, Germany on Wednesday, October 31 through Friday, November 2, 2007 from 7:00 -10:00 PM. Featured speakers will be TOS Pastor Jobst Bittner, Holocaust survivors Rose Price and Peter Loth, Rosemarie Claussen, the god-daughter of Hitler whose father helped Jews to escape from Berlin and Boris Krysinko, rabbi of the world's largest messianic congregation in Kiev Ukraine (90% Jews in a congregation of 2,000).

Pastor Bittner has been used mightily of God in his country to bring reconciliation to the German church through its Nazi past. Of the TOS Ministries membership approximately 70% are direct descendants of Nazis. These members have suffered the sins of the fathers and are now finding release through repentance and reconciliation.

In April, Pastor Bittner led "The March of Life", a memorial walk, covering 180 miles including nine concentration camps in southern Germany. "The March of Life," reached Dachau on Holocaust Remembrance Day. A team from Baruch HaShem joined the march and all the participants were profoundly impacted. Several Israeli Messianic Jewish ministries also participated and have developed deep relationships with the TOS Ministries.

Ted Pearce, Galilee of the Nations recording artist, will perform along with the TOS music team Beersheva. Ted's moving music video documentary, "The Forgotten People" which was officially released at the end of the March of Life in Munich will also be shown. The TOS dance team, Yeshua's Call, will present their uniquely German approach to prophetic worship.

Please join us for a historic spiritual reconciliation event.
